1. Between 11 and 20 September 1950 the Flak Kaserne on Ettersburgerstrasse, Weimar (M 51/J 57), was occupied by about 500 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets. About half of the troops were recruits. Drill and training in firing were observed in the barracks yard. Six guns, on which six soldiers were working, and motor vehicles were seen in the barracks yard on 18 September 1950.

2. Billeting Area I of the Tannenberg Kaserne quartered a detail of about 30 men who wore red-bordered black epaulets. There was no motor traffic. Billeting Area II was occupied by about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. This unit apparently furnished motor vehicles for other units in the military post area. The motor pool, which could be viewed from the street, was estimated to have 30 to 40 vehicles. Other vehicles were in the garages. About 25 soldiers in coveralls were working there.

Billeting Area III quartered VP personnel.

3. Billeting Area I of the Luetzendorff Kaserne was occupied by about 100 troops, mostly recruits, who wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. Trucks each carrying about 20 soldiers, left the installation on 11 September 1950. Trucks apparently driving school vehicles, left the barracks on 14 September 1950. Motor vehicles and were also in the billeting area. Billeting Area II quartered about 250 men of a signal unit, some of whom wore radio insignia. About half of the troops were recruits. Motor vehicles were observed with the unit. Billeting Area III housed a Soviet hospital and some Soviet families. Motor vehicles were seen there. The gun emplacement was still located at the gas works.
